

BRUNEL INTERNATIONAL N.V. REMUNERATION REPORT 2018

Introduction

The remuneration of the members of the board of directors is the responsibility of the supervisory board as a whole. Decisions by the supervisory board should be in accordance with the remuneration policy for members of the board of directors as approved by the general meeting of shareholders.

Decisions regarding the remuneration of the members of the supervisory board are taken by the general meeting of shareholders.

BOARD OF DIRECTORS

Remuneration policy

The remuneration policy's objective is to attract, motivate and retain qualified and expert executives to an internationally operating company that is listed on the stock exchange and specialises in the flexible supply of knowledge and capacity. The remuneration policy remains unchanged with the proviso that following best practice provision 3.1.2 of the Dutch corporate governance code (the 'Code'), the pay ratios within the company and its affiliated enterprise are taken into consideration. The supervisory board believes that the remuneration policy expedites the short-term operational performance and the objectives for the strategy for long-term value creation within the meaning of best practice provision 1.1.1 of the Code. The remuneration policy for members of the board of directors, is available on the company's website. No substantial changes to this policy are expected in the coming years. All substantial changes to the remuneration policy in future will be submitted to the general meeting of shareholders for approval.

Employment contracts

The members of the board of directors, and the dates of commencement of their board membership are:

Jilko Andringa, CEO

December 7, 2017

Peter de Laat, CFO

May 1, 2014

In line with best practice provision 2.2.1 Jilko Andringa and Peter de Laat have been appointed for a period of 4 years. Peter de Laat was reappointed for four years in the annual general meeting of 14 May 2018. The agreements with the members of the board of directors include a termination arrangement, which is in line with best practice provision 3.2.3.

Remuneration structure and components

The remuneration structure for the board of directors is designed to balance short-term operational performance with the long-term objectives of the company, with due regard for the risks to which variable remuneration may expose the enterprise. The total remuneration and the remuneration elements are based on the going rates in the international labour market and are fine-tuned using data from companies that are similar to Brunel in terms of scale and complexity.

Before the remuneration policy as a whole is determined, and the level of remuneration of individual board members is fixed, scenario analysis are made of the variable remuneration components and the consequences that they could have on the level of remuneration of the board members. The level and structure of the remuneration of the board members is determined by reference to the scenario analysis carried out and with due regard for the pay differentials within the company. In determining the level and structure of the remuneration of board members, both financial and non-financial indicators relevant to the long term objectives of the company are taken into account.

The remuneration package, following the adoption of the remuneration policy, contains the following components:

Base salary

The Supervisory Board determined the salaries of the directors for 2018 at:

Fixed annual gross salary 2018:

Mr. J.T. Andringa	EUR 575,000
Mr P.A. de Laat	EUR 400,000

Variable Salary

The variable component of the total remuneration package is performance related. It consists of short- and long-term components. Performance targets and conditions are derived from our strategy and annual business plans. The targets are assigned prior to the relevant year and assessment of realisation is conducted after year-end by the supervisory board.

Short-term variable component

The short-term incentive compensation is paid in cash. The short-term bonus scheme for the members of the board of directors rewards both financial performance and individual performance. Both elements are weighted equally. The quantitative targets (budget, sales, margin, profitability, EBIT and control of operating capital) reflect the financial parameters considered by the supervisory board to be critical with regard to the realisation of Brunel's strategic objectives. The supervisory board ensures that the targets agreed are both challenging and realistic. For commercial and competition-related considerations, Brunel does not wish to publish the targets that have been agreed. The short-term bonus may not exceed 75% of the fixed annual salary of the CEO. For the other board members the maximum bonus opportunity is 50% of the fixed annual salary. The realisation of each financial or individual target can independently result in bonus payment. The supervisory board allocates the bonus based on the achievement of the targets of members of the board of directors and determines the associated pay-out.

Based on the results in 2018, the supervisory board has considered the extent to which the performance delivered meets the quantitative targets and also the individual targets have been assessed. The board of directors partly achieved the quantitative targets, and achieved the individual targets.

Cash bonus for results 2018:

Mr. J.T. Andringa	EUR	323,000	Gross
Mr. P.A. de Laat	EUR	180,000	Gross

Long-term variable component

In 2015, the option scheme has been replaced by a Stock Appreciation Rights (SAR) scheme as the long-term variable remuneration component. This scheme emphasises the sustainable growth of operating profit and market share as well as the realisation of the company's long-term policies. The term is five years. SARs can only be exercised after a period of three years has passed since they were granted. If employment ends the SARs will lapse, except for the 2014, 2015 and 2016 option and SAR series for Mr Van Barneveld.

The option scheme has been adjusted for options that had not vested yet. The only adjustment is that the possibility to settle options in shares has been cancelled. As a consequence the scheme for these participants is a cash settled plan.

In 2018, the following SARs have been granted:

Director	Number of SARs	Exercise price in EUR
Mr J.T. Andringa	-	-
Mr P.A. de Laat	50,000	15.48

Pension contribution

The pension scheme for members of the board of directors is a defined contribution plan. The contributions are fully borne by the company.

Loans

The company has issued no loans or guarantees to members of the board of directors.
